Emerging Author Cody Ray, Published an E-book Collection of Flash Fiction About Love, Relationships, Dreams and Change, Through Smashwords.com.

Cody Ray's e-book, Cody's Collection of Flash, is a collection of flash fiction that covers a wide range of topics like; love, relationships, dreams and change. The e-book can be found for free download from Smashwords.com any of the major e-book readers.

The first story, "Normal Behavior", is about a woman living in an alternative version of the U.S.. In this Dystopian society the population is controlled through the use of "required pills" and things that are fun and exciting or just make you feel alive, are considered strange and taboo. One day the woman doesn't take her pills, and as a result she experiences fun and happiness. Not wanting to give them up, she forsakes the pills. For refusing to take the pills and breaking the society taboos, she ends up getting thrown into an insane asylum until she "feels normal" again.

In the second story, "Things Between Us," we have a couple that recently moves in together. However, the girlfriend's resolve is quickly tested as her boyfriend's dog ends up destroying their living room including her prized coffee table when he was chasing her cat around the house. This event sparks an argument between the couple that ends with the girlfriend deciding to try to make things work.

Finally, "Sunny Beaches and Diamonds," is about a passionate couple in the 50's that finds that they have a talent for robbing banks and go on a robbing spree. However, not everything goes as planned. Relaxing in their motel room after what was to be their last heist, the cops finally catch up to them. Not wanting to give up their dreams, they decide to make a getaway which results in their tragic demises.

The Author Cody Ray, has an associate's degree in the teaching of social sciences and is currently working toward his B.F.A. in Creative Writing for Entertainment at Full Sail University. When not attending classes, he spends his time reading and making up new worlds and thinking up the adventures that take place in them.

Smashwords, the company that Cody trusted his work to, is an organization that publishes and distributes e-books to all other major retailers simultaneously, so authors only have to do it once instead of doing multiple times. Smashwords also converts and offers the e-books in plethora of formats so it is readily available and easily obtainable for all people to enjoy.
